10. Dependency Override

CIRCUMSTANCES NOT GIVEN CONSIDERATION

The Department of Education has identified conditions that, individually or in combination with one another, DO NOT QUALIFY AS UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES, or do not merit a change in dependency status. Those conditions are as follows:

- Parent(s) refusing to contribute to the student's education
- Parent(s) unwilling to provide information necessary to complete the FAFSA and/or verification process
- Parent(s) not claiming the student as a dependent for income tax purposes
- Student demonstrating total self-sufficiency and/or not living with their parent(s)

However; if you could not answer YES to one of the 13 dependency questions provided on the FAFSA but you feel you meet the criteria stated below, you may contact our office and request the appropriate paperwork to complete to be considered for a Dependency Override.

CIRCUMSTANCES GIVEN CONSIDERATION

- A student's voluntary or involuntary removal from the parents' home due to an extreme situation that threatened the student's health and/or safety and due to these conditions, parent support was terminated.
- Incapacity of parent(s) such as incarceration, mental or physical illness or the inability of the applicant to locate the parent(s).
- Other extenuating circumstances that can be sufficiently documented.
